

August 21st, 2018

Family & Disability
Studies Initiative

SUPPORT NEEDS AND SERVICE PATHWAYS FOR PARENTS WITH LEARNING DIFFICULTIES*

*Intellectual or borderline intellectual disability

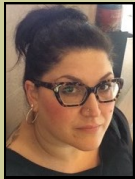

Speakers

David McConnell, PhD
Professor and Director
Dept. of Occupational Therapy
Family and Disability Studies Initiative
University of Alberta

Traci LaLiberte, PhD
Professor and Executive Director
School of Social Work
Center for Advanced Studies in Child Welfare, University of Minnesota

Nicola Fairbrother
Founder and Director
Neighbourhood Bridges

Laura Pacheco, PhD
Acting Director
Special Parenting Service
Montréal West Island Integrated University
Health and Social Services Centre

Register Today

www.tiny.cc/Conversation

Scan with your iPhone camera
or QR Reader

Join the Conversation

- ◆ Hear about the latest research on parents and parenting with learning difficulties
- ◆ Learn about the Support Needs and Service Pathways Project
- ◆ Participate in a policy and practice issues forum: Building capacity across sectors to better support parents with learning difficulties and their children
- ◆ Network with policy makers, researchers, and practitioners in the field

Free to attend

Lunch and snacks provided

For more information please contact Amber Savage at fdsa@ualberta.ca or 780-492-8568

10:00am - 4:00pm
Corbett Hall, University of Alberta
8205 114 Street, Edmonton, Alberta